

he yellow school bus arrives for one of the last few times for this Grade 12 student as the school term quickly winds down. But for six year old Dylan Chopek (top right), it's still all a wonderful adventure as he climbs aboard for another session in Grade 1. Picture right shows driver Sandra Rennie reflected in the large mirror as she takes off down the road to pick up another youngster. ©Provost News Photos.

Jason Unrau (far left) pushes little Joshua Caleb Unrau across Highway 13 towards Hughenden while sister Pamela Unrau—with supplies from the store
in hand—pulls twins Nova-Lee and MacKenzie Ford in their little red wagon at 11:28 a.m.
©Provost News Photo.

Several chairs suddenly emptied when the photographer showed up at a Weight Watchers' meeting at 6:15 p.m. But 80 year old Irma Larson had very little to hide—and stayed put to report that she lost 16 pounds since November. She lives at Hillcrest Lodge. ©Provost News Photo.