90th Anniversary Edition

MAIN STREET
PROVOST, ALBERTA.

90
YEARS

Main Street and area are shown in this old photo believed to have been taken in the 1930s. The cenotaph is standing, having been erected shortly after World War I. The hospital can be picked out at the far north end of the street. Right, foreground is the old Provost Hotel that burned a half century later.
