

Final touches . . . Bob Cameron (left) and Frederic Kuttle discuss the performance of a 1949 DeHavilland Beaver floatplane. The aircraft is back in service after a ground up restoration effort by Cameron. PHOTO BY DEREK CROWE, THE YUKON NEWS, WHITEHORSE, YUKON.

PEI planting time—Brian Oulton (right) fills up Peter Webb's jute bag with potatoes, which he will cut up and plant by hand in the prepared drills. The russet potatoes, which are being grown for seed, were being planted on Rayner's Farm in Cascumpec, Prince Edward Island.

PHOTO BY JEAN KENNY, EDITOR WEST PRINCE GRAPHIC, ALBERTON, PEI

88 year old Willie Francis Fraser, of Deepdale, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia hand-scythes his hay.

He is also one of the most revered step-dancers in the Cape Breton tradition of Celtic dance.

PHOTO BY THE INVERNESS ORAN, (N.S.), FRANK MACDONALD.

Scott Boyes, La Ronge, Saskatchewan—The sunny afternoon made for perfect swimming, but rather than head to the beach, many youngsters cooled off in the Montreal River. The current becomes much stronger nearer Air Ronge, and youngsters can spend a day repeatedly bumping down the gentle rapids and under the Highway 2 bridge.

PHOTO BY DARLA READ OF THE LA RONGE NORTHERNER.

One Country. One Community. One Day. One Country.