

Sheridan Peterson of Livelong, Sask. licks off the last morsels of lunch from his fingers while stopped at Shorncliffe Lake Park west of Czar. The 27 year old has been working on the oil rigs since he was 18 and was taking a rest from drilling near Amisk. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.

Cows and oil seem to mix well at this Talisman Energy Inc. field south of Chauvin. The fields are one of the most important ones in Alberta for this energy company that has its head offices in Calgary. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.

Tom and Diana Kroetsch of Hayter check their suppertime meal that is just beginning to smoke on the grill outside their house. Six year old Ryan Kroetsch (not shown, but behind a screen patio door) caught his first fish—a trout out of Dilberry Lake Provincial Park. The dish was wrapped in foil for cooking and mom said after the meal that the fish tasted very good. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.

My flower garden isn't doing so well, Iva Beeton (right) tells neighbour Vesta Tattrie at 9:56 a.m. who is looking after a house in Czar while the owners are away in their fifth wheel motorhome. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.
