HILLCREST LODGE HIGHLIGHTS

by Mary Turcotte

On Sunday afternoon we had the surprise visit of Wayne Osbaldeston who came to entertain us with old time music and jokes. He apparently came over to Provost on Saturday to help his Aunt Lorraine celebrate her birthday. Upon hearing about our lodge from Margaret Mielke, he decided to come and entertain us as well which was very well received.

Monday morning, all those who had their names down for a trip to Camrose were asked to line up for breakfast first, seeing that the bus was leaving at 8:30 a.m. They came back at 7:30 p.m. tired, but happy after a full day of casino and shopping.

Tuesday there was OKO in the afternoon and night bingo was a surprise, Cindy presented the winners with a magic bag, which contained chips with different prizes. Whatever was written on the chip you got. The winners were: Jack and Emilie Beier, Jean Broemeling, Marie Schneider, Elizabeth Hauck, Emilia Raab, Philip Scheck, George Gaida, Mary Oberst, Ella Hanson, Clem Kohlman, Mildred Farrish, Christina Breunig, Phyllis Sullivan, Florentina Walz, Betty Swanson, Doris Large, Rene Ninowsky, Pauline Pare, Helen McNabb and Maurice Turcotte.

On Wednesday morning Rev. Eleanor Ness conducted our service with Allene Paulgaard at the piano. The message came from Mathew 20:1-16, where the workers of the vineyard are all given the same wage no matter how long they worked. People are always ready to grumble that life isn't fair. Yet God loves all those who believe in Him, no matter how long it takes them to see and accept the truth. Those who come early have blessings and peace longer than those who toiled in vain before realizing that God wants us to freely surrender to His love. Yet no matter at what stage of life we come upon the revelation that God can be trusted to give us eternal life if only we are ready to surrender and believe Him fully. At that moment we start an eternal relationship. None of us can merit it.

It is a free gift. By faith we are saved, lest anyone should boast. We have to believe and obey in love, not out of duty.

Here's a cute joke concerning seniors that some of you might appreciate. An elderly couple had dinner at another couple's house and after eating; the wives left the table and went into the kitchen. The two gentlemen were talking, and one said: "Last night we went out to a new restaurant and it was really great. I would recommend it highly."

The other man said: "What is the name of the restaurant?" The first man thought and thought and finally said. "What is the name of that flower you give to someone you love? You know . . . the one that's red and has thorns?" "Do you mean a rose?" says the other. "Yes, that's the one," replied the man. He then turned towards the kitchen and yelled: "Rose what's the name of that restaurant we went to last night?"

Thursday, we had card

This Friday being the last Friday of the month, we have fun Friday and this pretty well finishes our activities for the week.

I guess our farmers were blessed on Monday by not having the heavy rain some had. Our Camrose friends tell us they had an inch or more.

Until next week then, God bless you all.
